MULTICULTURAL EDUCATION CONCERNS ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Our mission is to serve as the voice for families in the Anchorage School District and to promote educational success for multicultural students.

The Multicultural Education Concerns Advisory Committee (MECAC) is the only standing committee that is appointed by the Anchorage School Board. They advise the board on issues relating to multicultural students and their families. The current chair of MECAC is Dr. Ellsworth James.

The MECAC works to ensure equity for all students and provides input to the Anchorage School Board on issues such as:

- educational programs
- curriculum and course content
- student discipline
- citizen involvement
- minority community concerns

Meetings

Meetings are held at the ASD Education Center, Room #150, for two hours once a month (except December and July) on the third Thursday from 4:30–6:30 p.m.

For more information

Visit us online at www.asdk12.org. Just look for the “MECAC” link under the “School Board” heading.
